

SSD SUMMER INTENSIVE

Come learn from Randall Flinn, founder and Director of the professional Contemporary/Modern dance company, Ad Deum! He and his company have traveled, performed and ministered all over the world and we are ecstatic to host him at SSD!

RANDALL FLINN

Having received her BFA in Dance from TCU and additional training at Hubbard Street Dance in Chicago, Hannah Requa is currently a freelance dancer, choreographer, and educator. She has danced with multiple professional companies, including Bruce Wood Dance in Dallas and the Corpus Christi Ballet, where she was a Principal Soloist. We can't wait for Hannah to share her knowledge and expertise!

HANNAH REQUA

With 18+ years of experience in the dance industry, we are delighted to welcome back Misty Rascon-Smith! Misty is an absolute powerhouse who leads and inspires dancers across the nation. Our dancers who attend Dance Revolution look forward to her classes, (including Ms. Bethany!) every year! Check out her bio to see the artists she has worked with and reserve your spot in her class today!

MISTY RASCON-SMITH

Join SSD Alumna and Broadway Dance Center Pro Sem (in New York City) graduate, Darby Kingman for a day of Jazz Hands and high energy dancing! Darby has traveled nationally and internationally choreographing and performing in various productions for tours, theater, commercial and film. She is a force to be reckoned with and we are excited to host her!

DARBY KINGMAN

Jeanna Vance has extensive training, teaching and choreographing experience, including being a founding member of Ad Deum Dance Co. Her love of story telling and passion to share the Gospel through dance was fanned to flame while touring with Dance Revolution. She now directs her own dance company, OpenSky Arts Collective. We are thrilled to host Jeanna at SSD!

JEANNA VANCE